

The bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act for the better regulation of chancery proceedings in certain cases, was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The Senate proceeded to a third reading of the engrossed bill entitled, an act to incorporate the stockholders of the Cerralvo mining company of Baltimore.

Mr. Heath moved to amend the bill by striking out the following words, in the 5th section, viz: 'to keep full records of their proceedings with a statement of their affairs which shall be open for inspection of any stockholder or at all meetings of the stockholders,' for the purpose of inserting the following words thereof, viz: 'to keep full records of their proceedings which shall be open for the inspection of any stockholder, and at the meetings of the stockholders, or to committees of them appointed for that purpose to report from time to time at least once in every year to said stockholders a statement of their affairs,' which amendment was read and unanimously assented to.

The bill having been read throughout and amended, was passed.

Mr. Kennedy, asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, an act to authorise the Governor and Council to appoint a measurer and inspector of Lumber and a measurer of Coals, for the Town of Williamsport in Washington county. Ordered, that Messrs Kennedy, Herbert, and Sewell, be a committee to prepare and report the same.

The bill entitled, an act to prevent obstructions in Smiths, and other Docks, in the city of Baltimore, was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Heath, from the committee reported a bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to lunatics and insane persons, passed at December session, 1826, chapter 197; which was read the first, and by special order a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Smith, from the committee, reported a bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Commercial Exchange company of Baltimore, which was read the first time and ordered to be printed.

The engrossed bill relating to the recording of deeds, being entitled to a third reading, was on motion, ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the Senate proceeded to take up for consideration the bill entitled, an act relating to the recording of deeds. The bill having been read a third time, after some discussion, Mr. Dennis, moved to recommit the